MINOT-SLEEPER LIBRARY—REPORT OF TRUSTEES

The trustees of Minot-Sleeper library have no unusual offering to present to the town this year. The work has gone on as usual, with the library open Wednesday and Saturday afternoons and evenings. The librarian, Miss Mary A. Rogers, has served the public courteously and efficiently.

In compliance with a recent law, the trustees, instead of being appointed by the selectmen, were elected at the last town meeting as follows: For one year—John O. Lovejoy, William C. White, Fred H. Ackerman; two years—John W. Dole, Mrs. E. Maude Ferguson, Mrs. Maude M. Pollard; three years—Miss Mary D. Musgrove, Karl G. Cavis, Mrs. Lepha M. Smith. On the death of Mrs. Ferguson, the trustees requested the selectmen to appoint Charles R. Follansbee as a trustee to fill the vacancy.

At a meeting of the trustees following the town meeting, the by-laws were revised, changing the date of the annual meeting to the third Tuesday in March. This change was made so that the organization of the trustees would follow the town meeting.

At a meeting in May the trustees voted a note of appreciation to Frank N. Gilman, who had given generous service as a trustee of the library for 20 years. The trustees have also placed on record resolutions of appreciation for the valued services rendered by Mrs. E. Maude Ferguson, deceased.

To meet a popular demand, the closing supper hour was made one-half hour later than formerly, being now from 5:30 to 6:30. The librarian's report at the last meeting of the trustees showed that the whole number of books loaned during the year was 19,531; of these, 11,906 were fiction; 3,906 juvenile fiction; 3,699 miscellaneous. An increase in the patrons of the reading room brought the number to 4,641. Books added to the library were 189. Collected for dues, fines, etc., $55.84. The age limit of those entitled to take books remains at eight years, the library privileges also extending to those residing in nearby towns. Every effort possible is made to cooperate with the schools, and reference lists for the use of pupils in their school work are placed in the library by the teachers. Included in the acquisition of books is a new Webster's International dictionary. The librarian also reported that the summer people were more and more taking advantage of the library and that she had distributed in increasing numbers, maps and guide books provided by the New Hampshire Development Commission.

A graph prepared by Miss Dorothy Annable of the State Library Commission, covering the years 1920-1932, showed a marked increase in the circulation of books, and a very small increased expense, indicating that the patrons are receiving much more for their money now than in former years.

A table of comparative figures, showing Bristol and other towns of similar population, was also prepared by Miss Annable, and is herewith presented to the public. (See next page.)

The library is indebted to Mrs. Louise Cummings for the gift of a set of "Histories of the Great War," and to Dr. Fred Eastman for several of his books. Citizens are urged to remember the library with gifts, large or small, and with bequests wherever possible.

Those who are most familiar with our library are more and more appreciative of our reading room which is supplied with a large number of the best magazines.

Were it not for the Minnie Maria Day-Jackman fund this privilege of our library would be very small indeed. Purchases from this fund include not only the magazines, but also books for reference in the library. Every possible use is also made of the magazines after the year is completed when they are no longer of use in the reading room.

Magazines to be found on the tables include American, American Boy, American Girl, American Forests and Forestry, Child Life, Junior Home, Atlantic, Asia, Geographic, Woman's Home Companion, Harper's, Ladies' Home Journal, Literary Digest, Nature Magazine, Our Dumb Animals, Outlook, American Issue, St. Nicholas, Linn's Weekly Stamp News, Popular Mechanics, World's Work, Popular Science, Current History, Scientific American, The Pathfinder, Every Girl, American Home, Good Housekeeping, School Arts Magazine, Book Review Digest, Better Homes and Gardens, Embroideress, Scribner's, Audubon Society of N. H., D. A. R. Magazine, American Nature, Country Gentleman, Etude, Jacobs Band Magazine, School Musical, Forum, Harpers' Bazaar, Needlecraft, American Forests, Current History, and others. A few periodicals are contributed by clubs and individuals.

The trustees have complied with the conditions of the will of Mrs. Mabel N. Bickford in a manner satisfactory to Raymond Cavis, executor, and have now placed in the library the mineral specimens of Mrs. Bickford's father, William A. Rice, and have received from the estate $350.

Miss Rogers is always solicitous for the patrons and wherever possible guides the selection of books by the children. She cannot, however, fill the place of the parents in this respect. Murder stories, and many other books, suitable for the adult mind, should not be read by small children. To prevent this she needs the cooperation of the parents, who should know what their children are reading. The aid of the parents is important and is urged.

Requests for new books are being met as far as funds will permit, but the amount available for the purchase of books is very small, considering the wide range of types of books desired and the fact that from this small fund must come the money for rebinding and replacement of many books most in demand. The latest fiction is usually high in price, so even city libraries or those well endowed must often wait for the reduced price. However, all requests for books will be carefully considered by the committee, and purchase will be made at the earliest possible date.

At the last meeting of the trustees plans for immediate improvements in the library were made by the trustees, together with the trustees of the library fund of the Woman's club. This list of trustees includes Mrs. Alice E. Tapply Mrs. Nell G. Lamson, Mrs. Mary D. Senior, Miss Mary A. Rogers, and Miss Mary D. Musgrove. With money available from this Woman's club fund, and some from library bequests, it was decided to proceed with improvements if possible and to secure bids on the installation of an oil burner, a lavatory, and toilet, and to change the entrance to the basement from the vestibule to the main room. Mrs. Tapply from the club and John W. Dole from the library trustees were appointed to proceed, together with the selectmen, in ascertaining the expense of the proposed changes.

For the past year, Fred H. Ackerman and Miss Mary D. Musgrove have served as Executive committee; Miss Musgrove, Mrs. Maude M. Pollard, Mr. Ackerman, and Karl G. Cavis, book committee.

The trustees sincerely desire to make the library the greatest possible asset to the community.

Respectfully submitted,
